

Focus on what matters most

Company Assistant will help you spend time creating strategies for clients by taking the pain out of client document creation.

Your clients rely on you for professional advice, cost cutting measures and time saving strategies. Yet how much of your time do you spend tackling the administrative support that's required? How much more could you expand your own accounting practice if you could focus more energy on developing strategies?

Company Assistant, an affordable and credible online service, takes the monotony and time out of setting up your clients' companies and trusts. Documents take minutes to create and are stored securely in your account with the option of professional printing and delivery.

And, it only takes 12 minutes and $99 to set up a trust or $501 and 20 minutes to register a company!

POINT 1

Setup a company or family trust in minutes!

Set up a compliant family trust in as little as 12 minutes and you will immediately receive your trust deed and supporting documents. Need to register a company? Register online within minutes using our reliable service connected to ASIC. You will receive your ACN and complete package of tailored company documents.

POINT 2

Clear information whenever you need it

Company Assistant creates fully compliant and accurate documentation that is stored securely in your account. Available online 24/7, with the option of professional printing and delivery, get the documents you need, when you need them.

POINT 3

An Accountant's dream - low cost, fast and efficient!

Register an Australian Company for only $501. This includes the ASIC registration fee of $479, service fee of $20 and GST! Your Discretionary (Family) Trust will only cost $99.

Even at this incredible price, you are getting a quality product created and backed by Thomson Reuters, not a low budget tool that is frustrating to navigate and integrate.

POINT 4

Save time managing your client files

Best of all, Company Assistant is easy to use. All instructions and forms are stored in your account online and can be downloaded any time.

POINT 5

Backed by Thomson Reuters

With more than 100,000 customers, you can rely on Thomson Reuters to provide secure and compliant documentation backed by our legal partners.

Respond quickly to clients and get on with the long game

We understand that the ultimate goal for accountants is to stop sweating the admin stuff so that you can focus on creating strategy and value in your own business. But we also know that you can't get on with strategy until you satisfy the most basic requirements for each and every client.

That's where Company Assistant can help. Employ the easiest and most cost-effective way to create documents online in your office today!
